

Input: 8 news articles
(Greece · 4 Feb 2018 · protests)

Level-1 Clustering: How 8 news articles about the same event are merged Athens Macedonia-name-dispute protests · Greece · 4 February 2018
(all pairs above threshold = 0.45)

Output: 1 canonical event (connected component)

(a)

A1

"140,000 people protested in Athens over the government's attempts to resolve the Macedonia name dispute."

loc: Athens, Syntagma Sq.

0.98

conf

A2

"Thousands of Greeks protested in Athens over the government's consideration of a compromise with Macedonia."

loc: Athens, Syntagma Sq.

0.95

conf

A3

"Thousands protest in Athens over the Macedonia name dispute between Greece and its neighbour."

loc: Athens, main square

0.92

conf

A4

"Greeks rallied in Athens over the inclusion of the word 'Macedonia' in the name of a neighbouring former republic."

loc: Athens, Syntagma Sq.

0.82

conf

A5

"Thousands of Greek citizens protested in Syntagma Square over FYROM's potential use of the name 'Macedonia'."

loc: Athens, Syntagma Sq.

0.81

conf

A6

"Greeks protested in Athens' main square over the Macedonia name dispute."

loc: Athens, main square

0.75

conf

A7

"Thousands of Greeks protested in Athens against the Greek government over the name of Macedonia."

loc: Athens, Syntagma Sq.

0.80

conf

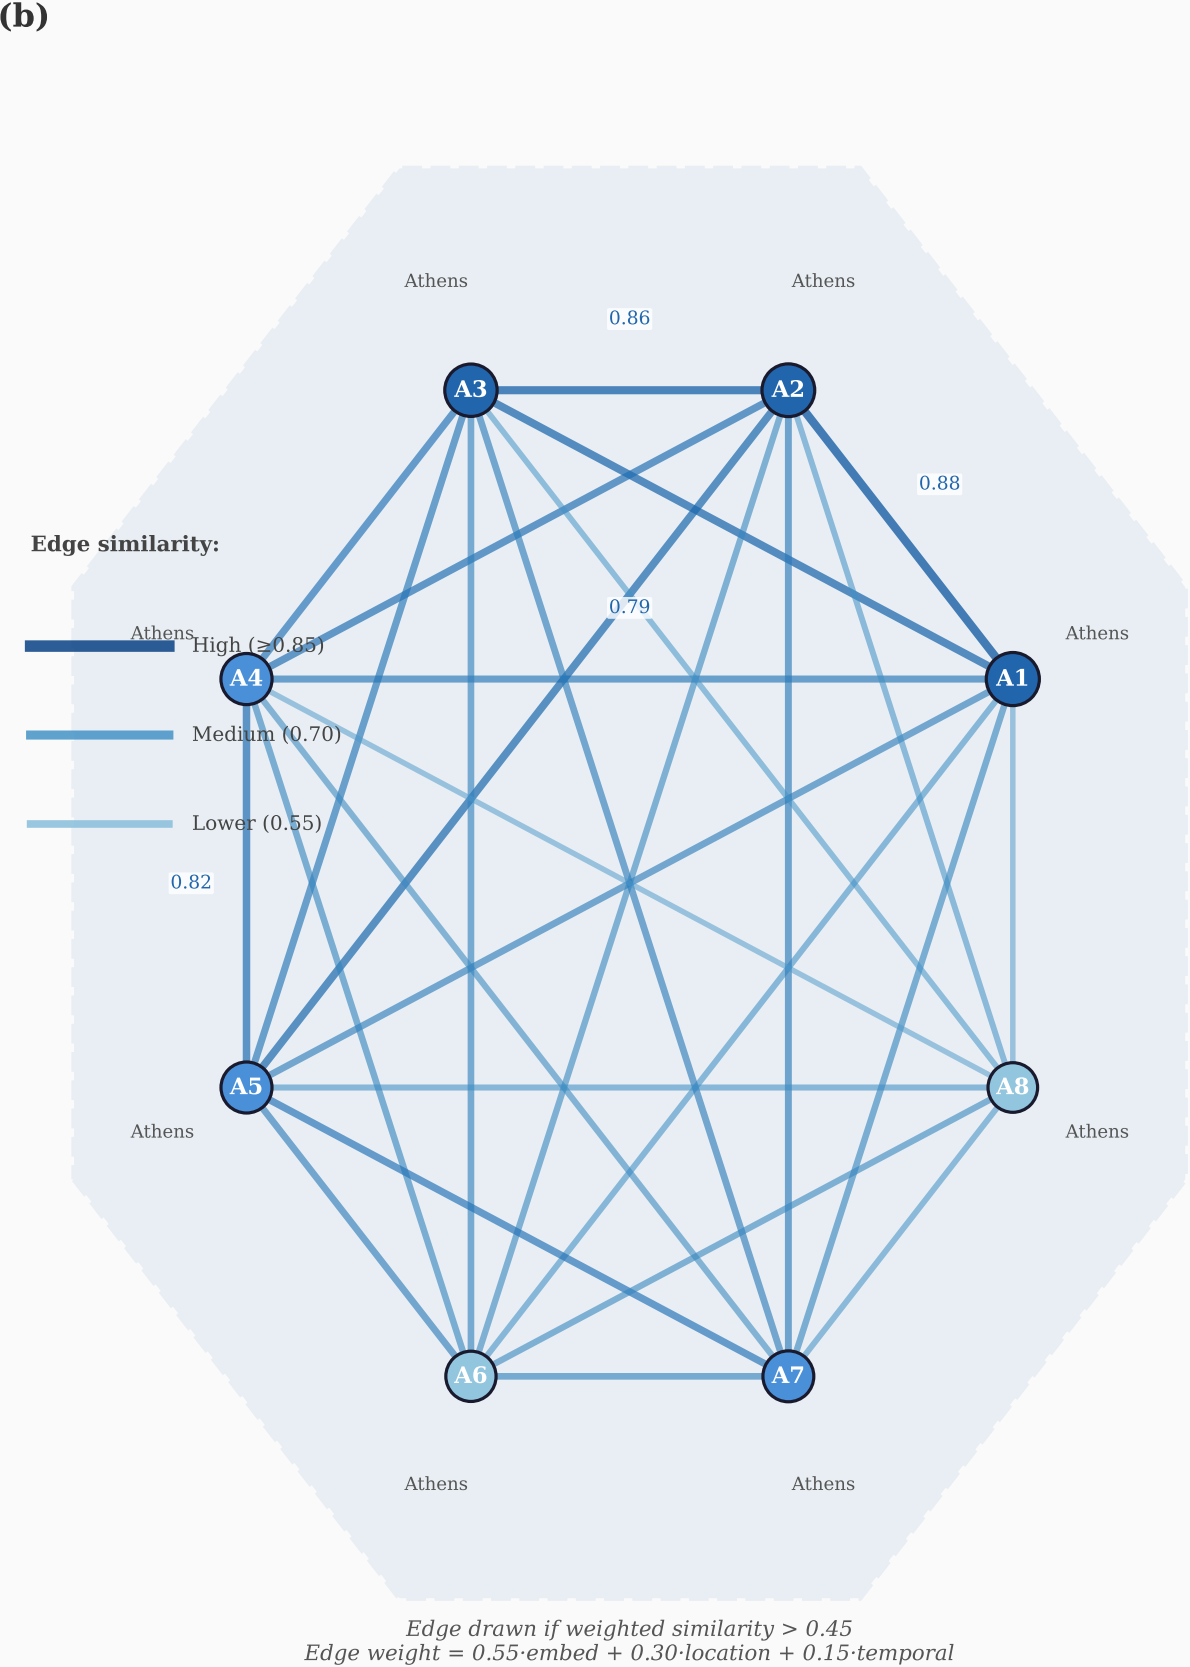

A8

"Hundreds of thousands of Greeks rallied in Athens over a naming dispute with Macedonia."

loc: Athens

0.70

conf

(c)

Canonical Event

Event type:

Protest

Country:

Greece (GRC)

Location:

Athens, Syntagma Sq.

Event date:

4 February 2018

Articles merged:

8 (of 12 total)

Avg confidence:

0.84

Mean sim score:

0.754

Label assigned:

protest_today = 1

protest_7d = 1

mean internal similarity = 0.754

8 articles → 1 event
(73% compression)